

Sustainable Integration

S.V.S.I Ltd.

ACT

Space for Artists = Space for the Community Space for the Environment

The projects aims

- To promote sustainability through the medium of art
- To give artists an affordable place to work and exhibit
- To develop and promote environmentally friendly use of artistic materials
- To support artists with marketing and business advice and the promotion of their work through agencies
- To enable artists to gain recognition on regional, national and international levels
- To give children and young people the opportunity to explore and develop creativity
- To raise social awareness and environmental consciousness in children and young people
- To integrate people of different abilities, age groups and ethnic backgrounds
- To integrate people marginalized in society
- To create a structure to monitor the effectiveness of the arts as a viable source of employment
- To generate a sustainable income
- To use the creative arts as a focus for the tourist industry
- To establish links with international artists (within the new European Countries in particular)
- To use art as a means for raising issues of social awareness

For further information contact: Lola Smart

ASSET

Aid Small and Social Enterprise to their Target

The Project Aims:

Objectives:

- To increase implementation of sustainability development in SE and SME
- To develop a network of ethical lead enterprises
- To be a focus point for entrepreneur development in rural and semi-rural areas
- To support innovative development
- To increase local and regional competitiveness
- To promote community lead businesses
- To develop an incubation point for a sustainable for SME and SE
- To encourage employment integration
- To develop skills and knowledge based employment opportunities
- To link business and encourage business-to business support and trade
- To develop economic sustainability for SME and SE
- To establish a community lead incubation centre
- To support local regeneration

For further information contact: Lester Bath/Helga Uckermann

Intercultural Skills Link (ISL)

ISL is a member organisation of SVSI Ltd.

The organisations aims to work on active integration of ethnic minorities

The Project aims:

- Social integration
- Cultural integration
- Economic integration
- Infra structural integration

For further information contact: Adrian Thomas/Helga
Uckermann

Tandem

The project aim is to develop a network of straw bale bike sheds for hostels on the outskirts and in Snowdonia Nationalpark.

The Project Aims:

- To increase the awareness of sustainability and environment
- To raise awareness about sustainable travel
- To be a focus point for sustainable tourism
- To raise awareness about resourceful renewable energy use
- To have an impact on carbon footprint reduction
- To support sustainable tourism
- To promote community lead tourist provision
- To initiate sustainable income leads for community projects
- To encourage health awareness and wellbeing through sustainable activities
- To encourage the use of the cycle path networks in SNP
- .To develop an incubation point for a sustainable building
- To promote the beauty and cultural heritage of North Wales
- To develop a tourist attraction in North Wales
- To link tourism, sustainable building and the use of alternative ways of access to SNP
- To develop economic sustainability for community related tourist business
- To create a sustainable link between art-craft and tourism

For further information contact: Peter Moore/ Helga Uckermann